

E-journal now available for libraries

FACHSPRACHE is now also available as an e-journal for institutional customers directly via the publisher facultas! With the online platform we meet the current needs of academic life, such as being able to access every article anytime and everywhere and to find relevant articles with full-text search. Users will have online access to the current issue, the journal's archives and the special edition (published online once a year).

If you wish to get an institutional membership for your library or institution, please send an e-mail to ejournals@facultas.at.
